

WE BUILD CONFIDENCE

For Immediate Release: July 19, 2016

Corval Group adds Denver-based operational capabilities

Introduction of new leadership

ST. PAUL, MN, July 19, 2016

Corval Group, an industrial general contractor with a 95-year history of providing engineering, construction, service and fabrication solutions, is pleased to announce the formation of its Denver-based subsidiary, Corval Builders & Erectors. "We have created Corval Builders & Erectors to be responsive to the market's desire for nation-wide, cost competitive industrial GC/EPC solutions with the same exceptional value Corval offers our customers and employees today," said Paul Jordan, Corval Group's CEO.

To lead this new company, Corval Group is pleased to announce the addition of Jamie Black as Executive Vice President of Corval Builders & Erectors. Black will be responsible for leading business development and operations across the US. Black brings over twenty years of business leadership experience to Corval from major industrial general contractors including extensive pipeline and process facility capabilities. "We are excited to add Jamie with his depth of construction experience and effective leadership skills to this key growth-oriented position," said Jim Simon, Corval Group's President.

"As the economy continues to strengthen, our clients are looking for strong partners to align with as they look to execute their capital and maintenance plans. I look forward to building the offerings of Corval – we are uniquely positioned to be that trusted partner of first choice," said Jamie Black.
