Corval Group Reaches Major National Safety Milestone: 1,000,000 Hours Worked Without A Recordable Injury

*Company Will Be Recognized by Some of the Industry's Top Leaders
Celebrating This Significant Accomplishment*

BEULAH, ND, October 15, 2013 – Corval Group is proud to announce that its commitment to their # 1 core value – Safety – is paying off. The St. Paul, MN based company with offices throughout the United States and Canada, recently reached 1,000,000 hours worked without an OSHA recordable injury. Through aggressive company-wide proactive safety programs, Corval is delivering on its promise to not only provide a fully integrated array of construction, fabrication, and business solutions, but doing it while providing world class safety.

According to Corval's CEO, Paul Jordan, "Achieving this major milestone is not only a testament to Corval employees across the country who have committed themselves to working safely every day, but is also the foundation that is fueling our company's growth across the country."

Achieving this milestone now places Corval Group in the top 1% of safe contractors throughout the country.

Corval Group is marking the milestone with a special luncheon awards ceremony featuring some of the state's top industry leaders at its North Dakota office in Beulah, ND. Highlighted speakers will include:

- Kari Cutting, Vice President, North Dakota Petroleum Council
- Pamela Link, Executive Director, North Dakota Construction Council
- Jon Godfread, VP of Governmental Affairs, North Dakota Chamber of Commerce
- Chuck Clairmont, Executive Director & CEO, North Dakota Safety Council

WE BUILD CONFIDENCE

The event culminating this major achievement will take place on Friday, November 8th, 2013 from 11:30am to 1:30pm at the Corval Group North Dakota office, 1218 Hwy 49 N, Beulah, ND 58523.

Reaching the 1 Million hours worked without an OSHA recordable injury adds to the Corval Group's already strong safety resume as past recipients of the North Dakota Safety Council's (NDSC) Merit Award and Letter of Commendation from NDSC's President.

"Today we celebrate a major milestone on our journey to performing all work incident-free," said Kurt Swenson, Corval Group's Executive Vice President. "We will continue to be vigilant in our safety efforts, keeping safety our number one priority for the benefit of our employees and our clients."
